

AN OUTLINE Of the Wilson Tariff Bill, Which Is Now Ready.

The Tax on Whisky Will Almost Surely Be Increased.

While Beer and Tobacco May Also Be Increased—It Will Prove for the Use of Material—The Bill Will Meet With Violent Opposition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the exception of a few details, the tariff bill is ready. It cuts considerably while yet its contents are a guarded secret, the report is that it provides for free raw materials—that is, free wool, free coal, free iron ore and free lumber.

Although the bill has been prepared in the excitement of the silver struggle, the president has given it close attention. Monday he read the rough draft of the printed bill, and had Chairman Wilson, of the ways and means committee, in long talks over the bill. To meet the curtailed revenues there is more than the probability that whisky, beer and tobacco will be taxed to pay for it. So far as whisky is concerned, it can be safely assumed that the tax will be increased. Just how much is not yet known. At $1.50 per gallon, which it is estimated, will make nearly $40,000,000 of added revenue. From beer the expectation is to get $6,000,000 additional. From tobacco, this is expected to be sufficient to add to the revenues such as is to be taken off under the tariff recently. Just now there is a tremendous fight to have sugar free, but at this writing it is on the list. What to do with sugar is yet a problem. The Louisiana planters are satisfied with the bounty if they have assurance that it will continue. Otherwise they prefer to pay for it. The Louisiana sugar bounty too has been developed of the beet industry in the northwestern states, which, if superseded with a tax, would ruin the industry. The plan now is to continue the bounty, have raw sugar free and make an added tax on the more refined products. The secret to the tariff bill is constructed on these lines. Much violent republican opposition. So much so indeed as to force many concessions.

INDIAN LANDS SEIZED.

Likely to be Serious Trouble if the Whites Do Not Retire.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 7.—Capt. Jesse Handford has just arrived in this city to purchase 200 rifles and ammunition for the use of Harrison, but the new army just within the border of Cour d'Alene Indian reservation. Chief Wellhew notified all the white settlers that the reservation within three days or pay $20,000 cash.

Wellhew has four hundred Cour d'Alene and fifty Spokane and many halfbreeds in the field, all well armed. Harrison has eighty white men, poorly armed.

Farmers along the St. Joe valleys have been called in, and the settlers will refuse to give up the town. The Harrison townsite is on the Indian land. Last week a big council was held to purchase it. Chief Steller offered to donate the townsite to the white settlers, but Wellhew refused. The offer was refused and the council disbanded. Two days later Wellhew sent an ultimatum demanding $50,000 for the privilege of staying there through the winter. He claims the government troops can not shelter, as he has the right to eject trespassers, and the settlers are preparing to defend themselves.

An Employee of Murderers Hanged.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 7.—Miller Davis was hanged at Clinton Point, Howard county, Monday for being accessory to the murder of John T. Doharke in Sevier county, Ark., about a year ago. Davis employed Stiller, who was shot to death by Doharke, and the other fellow turned state's evidence and saved his neck. Doharke and Davis were in love with the same woman and both were prominent men in Southwest Arkansas.

Warning to Fraudulent Voters.
ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 7.—Gov. Flower, Monday, issued a proclamation in which he calls upon the voters of the state to recognize the law under all circumstances, and calling attention to the fact that the right of franchise is supreme, and upon a free and honest ballot depends the success of this great nation.

More Coal Coming.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—The slow but steady rise in the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers enabled the shipment of about 1,000,000 bushels of coal in light river craft Monday afternoon and evening. There are in this harbor, awaiting shipment to port, between the Ohio river, between 15,000,000 and 20,000,000 bushels of coal.

Tennessee's Rank.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Jennie E. Kessler, of this city, who has been ill for some time, became insane a week ago and was seized with a hallucination that she must eat or drink. Despite the efforts of her friends to force her to take nourishment she would not do so, and was taken to an institution after starving for a week.

Director of the Mint.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—R. K. Preston was sworn in Monday as director of the United States mint. The fact of his confirmation by the senate, but the president has commissioned him as director in the recess. He will receive his remuneration to the senate in December.

ACCIDENTAL DEATHS.

Caused by Carelessness.

The majority of people die sooner than they should. Evidence of this fact is growing daily. Wasting energy, the result of consequence of life; it is due to unnatural conditions of living—neglect, abuse, want.

Dr. Stephen Smith, on the same subject

"Man is born to health and long life; disease is unnatural, death, except from old age, is accidental, and both are preventable by human agency. This is almost invariably true of death resulting from heat, disease, careless over-exertion, immoderate use of tea, coffee, tobacco, alcoholic or other stimulants are generally the causes of this disability, and indifference to its progress leads in death. By the newspaper it can be seen that many prominent and handsome persons in private life die from heart disease every day.

For over 20 years Dr. Franklin Miles the eminent specialist, has made a profound study of heart disease, its causes and cure, and many of the leading clinicians in this direction are due to him. His New Heart

Cure, absolutely the only safe, reliable remedy

THE MESSAGE.

Now Engages the Attention of President

Cleveland—Tariff, Finance, Hawaii and Brazil the Topics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The white house will probably see very little of President Cleveland between now and Monday, December 4. Most of the intervening time will be spent at Wood-ley in the preparation of his annual message. The president thinks he can work there to much better purpose than in the executive office, for though many senators and representatives have left the city, enough remain behind to make the pressure upon him for the numerous important offices still unfilled something to be avoided as far as possible.

Nearly all the cabinet officers are well advanced with their reports, which will form the basis of the recommendations in dealing with department matters. It is understood that each officer in turn will probably be a guest at Woodley. Secretary Carlisle has already had a whole day at Woodley, and many evening consultations. Postmaster General Blaine frequently drives out there in the pleasant evenings, and

Col. Lammie is a constant visitor.

State department matters this year will be of unusual interest, embracing, as they will, the Hawaiian policy of the administration of which, it is confidently expected, some authentic anouncement will be made for the information of the public. As to the of the striking incidents in Brazilian waters.

Finances will necessarily come next on the list, of course. Secretary Carlisle has been endeavoring in every brief respite that this silver fight has given him to get into form a tabulation of facts and recommendations to be practically promised in his special message to the extra session, as to that "other legislative action" which may be needed "not beyond all doubt, or mistake the intention and the ability of the government to fulfill its pecuniary obligations in money universally accepted by all civilized countries. The recommendations as to the army and navy, the complicated affairs of the interior department and the post office and agricultural department will have been largely foreshadowed in the meantime in the report of the treasury in those great executive officials.

LABOR COMBINE.

For the Purpose of Strengthening Certain

Weak Ones.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—Plans for the combination of labor organizations of Allegheny county and adjoining national organizations having headquarters in Pittsburgh, are under consideration. Assistance for those organizations having suffered especially heavy reverses in the past year or two, is the primary object of the combination.

The matter has been the subject of discussion in every labor headquarters in the county, and two largely attended meetings have been held. The utmost secrecy was observed at the inception of the project. The fact that the matter is now being openly referred to by labor leaders, is taken as an indication that definite lines of action have been agreed upon.
